New Documentary premieres tomorrow

The premiere of a documentary relating the hymn "A Poor Wayfaring Man of Grief" and BYU student worldwide service will premiere on Thursday, March 5, at 7 p.m. in the Varsity Theatre.

"Exploring the hymn 'A Poor Wayfaring Man of Grief' through BYU's global service" is a compilation documentary that brings together eight short documentaries produced over the course of eight years. The project was created through the collaborative effort of dozens of BYU journalism students who traveled across multiple countries, interviewed nearly 100 people, and recorded around six terabytes and 100 hours of footage.

The documentary also features professors and students from several schools and departments at the university including the College of Engineering, College of Nursing, German and Russian department, Ballroom Dance Company, Living Legends and BYU Athletics, as well as many individuals with the Church.

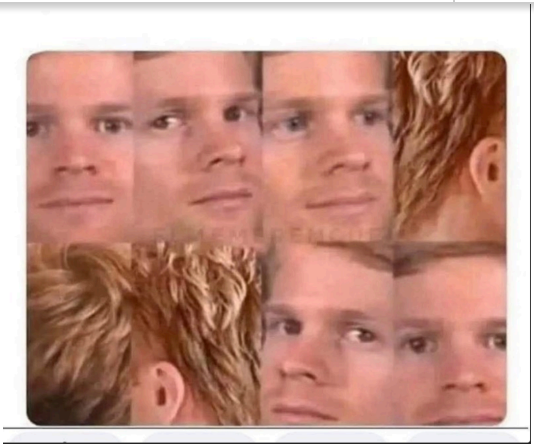

The series aims to showcase the work that BYU has done to bless the lives of people from different cultures and countries. Structured around the verses of the hymn "A Poor Wayfaring Man of Grief," the documentary tells meaningful stories that reflect themes of faith, service and discipleship. The stories highlight the work of numerous BYU colleges and departments and feature scores of individuals whose lives and experiences embody those principles.
